

There are lots of ways to become a Member of Mothers' Union

Many churches have a branch or group that you can join for worship and friendship and you would pay your subscription via them.
If you prefer can pay a yearly subscription through our office by cheque or BACS.

Group

MUMBags

a helping hand for Teenage Mums.

A bag containing a variety of clothes and essentials for babies to toddlers and a treat for mum.

Christmas Cards

Members hand write 7,000
Christmas cards every year for the prisoners at the nine prisons in the Diocese of Lichfield.

You can be a Supporter of Mothers' Union by giving a regular or one off donation to actively support a Mothers' Union initiative.

You could buy cards, books, or gifts from the MUE Shop online www.mueshop.org Any gift or sale goes directly to Mothers' Union work and is most appreciated.

Can we help you?

Knitting

jackets, bonnets and blankets for premature babies.

Many members and supporters knit items that are delivered to the neo-natal departments at various hospitals.

Every year members provide short holidays and breaks for families and individuals suffering from stress through our Away From It All initiative.

This leaflet shows just a little of the work done by the members of Mothers' Union in the Diocese of Lichfield
